

Barnet UNISON

Waste & Recycling Overtime Dispute

What is our Claim?

- Time and half for working Saturday.
- Double time for working Sunday.
- Time and half for ad hoc requests for over time Monday – Saturday.

Why Barnet Council should pay.

- Street Scene management agree that paying time and half is affordable.
- Because basic pay is low
- A lot of members are already working six days a week for Barnet Council and want to maintain the right to have a weekend off when they choose.
- Street Scene management have been paying agency workers time and half for working on a Saturday.
- Barnet Council has other Council workers who are working time and half on a Saturday and double time on a Sunday without changing their contracts.
- Barnet residents are now paying £70 for green waste collections which is generating millions of pounds to the service.
- Waste and Recycling workers have been working throughout the COVID pandemic.
