Help UNISON make a difference

Will you help UNISON stand up for its members, and speak out publicly on the issues that affect you? You can do this by giving an additional 5% voluntary contribution a month to our campaign fund. Please tick your preference below:

Campaign Fund

The campaign fund promotes better public services, enables the union to talk with politicians of any party about the work our members do and supports the union's equalities work.

No thank you

I do not wish to contribute to campaigning at the moment. (Those who choose not to opt in will not be disadvantaged in any way as compared with members who do opt in.)

UNISON Labour Link

Labour Link campaigns within the Labour Party locally and in Parliament for UNISON policy on the NHS, your employment rights and for quality public services.

I don't wish to contribute at the moment, but you may contact me to tell me more.

WHAT IS A TRADE UNION?

A Trade Union is a group of worker who have joined together to achieve better pay and working conditions and a safer working environment.

Trade Unions negotiate with employers on behalf of union members to agree wages, work rules, complaint procedures, rules governing hiring, firing and promotion of workers, benefits, workplace safety and other policies.

Who is in a trade union?

Ordinary working people like you—nearly seven million in the UK—are in a trade union, doing all sorts of jobs.

Why join a trade union?

Members benefit from the strength and security that comes from people working together to tackle problems.
