

Barnet UNISON hopes those who chose to recognize Valentine's Day in some way had a pleasant time. One thing's for sure – there is no love from our main employers to the workforce!

Breaking News: Covid Heroes face the sack by Barnet Council

The Barnet Group is an arm's length company 100% owned by Barnet Council. On Friday 9 February 2024, Enablement Home Care workers were told that they were no longer needed.

“We are the best at what we do, that is why we look after people discharged from hospital for 8 weeks till other carers takeover.”

“They should be expanding our service, not shutting it, what we do is vital, and we do it well”

Staff and Barnet UNISON left the meeting with the following questions:

1. Enablement is a well-run and valued service – why isn't TBG expanding rather than closing the service?
2. What engagement has taken place with stakeholders – our tenants and clients?
3. When will we know if this is a TUPE or a Closure?

Guest speakers are to be confirmed.
