

LOCAL ELECTIONS MAY 2014

PUBLIC MEETING YOU ASK THE QUESTIONS

If elected, what will Conservative, Labour, LibDem and Green parties do about housing, education, healthcare in Barnet, employment, the local economy, culture and sports provision, social care, the 'bedroom tax', parking and the environment? What do they think about local democracy and the way to provide services? What do you want to know about their plans and policies before you vote on 22 May?

Barnet Alliance for Public Services has organized a series of public meetings so that you can ask the questions and tell candidates what you expect from your elected councillors. Joining the politicians from the four parties on the panel will be Barnet blogger Mr Reasonable.

Come to a meeting near you and get the answers.
