

We, the undersigned petition the Prime Minister to act in the national interest to begin immediate negotiations with the Banks who were given £1.3 Trillion of taxpayer's money with the aim of reclaiming all of the money or at least sufficient money to halve the public sector debt thus removing the need to make cuts to frontline services and jobs.

Secondly that a public enquiry is organised in order for the public to understand why their money was used to bail out the banks.

Thirdly that robust regulatory controls are put in place to ensure this will never happen again.

Lastly that the UK Government signs up to the "Robin Hood Tax" proposal. We believe that a tax on financial transactions is the best way to do this – an average tax of 0.05% could raise £250billion globally.
